

Tips for Sunday's big game from our superb owl

Did you know that OC Owl used to play football as a young owl? OC's position was Wingback. As top flight on the team, OC Owl was im-peck-able when using a fly route!

Sunday, February 11: San Francisco 49ers vs. Kansas City Chiefs at 6:30 pm

The big game is on Sunday night and OC Owl is talon you not to wing it! Whether you'll leave the nest to kick it at a sports bar or flock together at a friend's house, look no feather. In one fell swoop, here's the bird's-eye view on how you can have a ball this Sunday.

Draft picks

When it comes to trip planning or paying your fare, the sky's the limit!

- Soar ahead with the Travel Planner or Transit app, or book your trip with My Para Transpo.
- Get on-the-fly service updates with several real-time travel tools.
- Avoid fumbling with cash and pay your fare with O-Payment. Remember, you can't get a quarterback!
- Huddle up at various free Park & Ride lots to swiftly connect to bus routes.
- Reach the cloud with free wi-fi at many O-Train Line 1 stations.
- Don't 'birden' yourself when kids go free and two can ride with the 2-for-1 DayPass.

The calm before the score

Before you turnover to watch the big game, here's a sneak beak of some other things happening this day:

- Time flies when you're having fun at Winterlude activities downtown! The Sno-Bus is free until 5:30 pm.
- Fluttering around Blackburn Hamlet? Wet your beak with the launch of OC Transpo On-Demand until 6:30 pm.

Out of bounds

Don't fly by the seat of your punts! As our resident night owl and public safety ambassador for Transecure, OC Owl also wants you to travel safely:

- After 7 pm, be a fan of Safe Stop. Ask the bus operator to touchdown at a location along the route closer to your end zone.
- After 9 pm, perch at night stops. They are centrally located, in well-lit open areas, and close to emergency call boxes or payphones.

The kicker

Our transit wingman may not be much of an early bird, but our customer service team is always ready to tackle your questions. Give us a hoot anytime at 613-560-5000!
